

While I support the concept of a National NO CALL law because I think everyone deserves the protection I am afforded in the state of Indiana, I firmly oppose preemption of our current state law. This law has nearly eliminated unwanted telephone solicitation that I had to endure before the law was initiated and has given me a better quality of life.